

A BIG REUNION AT KING WILLIAM, C. H.

A Great Event in the County the Latter Part of the Month.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WEST POINT, VA., July 15.—Mr. D. C. Richardson, of Richmond, will be the orator of the day at the reunion of the Confederate Monument Association, to be held at King William Courthouse, July 28th. People from far and near collect at the courthouse on that day. A free and abundant dinner is served to everybody and there is an all-round enjoyable time.

Miss Minnie Broadus, of Sparta, Carolina, daughter of the late Dr. Andrew Broadus, has accepted a position in the Faculty of the West Point Seminary. Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Lipscomb, of Roanoke, formerly of King William, are to leave for Ocean View, July 1st, for ten days, thence they will go to New York City, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Wm. H. Healy left last week for Hampton, where she will be the guest of Mrs. George B. Price, in the absence of Mr. Price, who is spending some weeks visiting the Lewis-Clark Exposition and touring the Pacific Coast. "Cyclone" Barnette, constable for Henric county, came down with a colored excursion from Richmond, on Monday. As soon as it was whispered in the crowd who was in the West Point, order reigned supreme throughout the day.

Mrs. Sohm, of St. Louis, better known as Miss Nora Thacker, of West Point, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thacker.

Miss Margaret Kaiser and lady companion, of Germantown, Penn., visited Mrs. Presley Williams this week. She is now visiting "The Island," the home of Captain Coleman, in Gloucester county. Mrs. William Burke, of Staunton, who has been visiting friends in West Point, left this week for Lector Manor, to visit her sister, Mrs. H. E. Wooten.

Miss Melinda Cottrell, of Newport News, is visiting Mrs. J. W. Shelton. Misses Fannie and Annie Smith returned to their home Friday after a lengthy visit to Miss M. O. Trice.

Miss Daisy Andrews, of Williams, visited friends in West Point this week, and is now visiting Miss Maggie Homby, in York county.

Miss Mattie Tuck, of Gloucester, who has been visiting Mrs. W. R. Broadus, is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Milton Thomas at Beulahville.

Mrs. Harry Walker, who, for many years was in business with J. E. Bland & Bro., greeted friends here the past week. He is now in the lumber business in Oklahoma.

Miss Nannie Withers, of Abingdon, Va., is spending the summer with Mrs. M. E. Edwards. Mrs. Thos. P. Bagby, association superintendent of Woman's Mission Work, in the Dover Association, will hold the woman's meeting, July 15th, in connection with the Dover Association to meet at Four-Mile-Creek Baptist Church in Henric county, July 15-20. Mrs. Wm. H. Bell, Misses Mary Garrett and Jamie Bagby are the appointed delegates to the woman's meeting.

Rev. Jno. A. Sullivan, Messrs. Albert Robinson, W. R. Brown, and E. E. Eastwood, will go as delegates from West Point Baptist Church to the Association.

Captain Walter Allmond is very ill at his home in Gloucester county. Miss Rebecca Hardwick, State Secretary of the Woman's Home Mission Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is in town yesterday looking after the Home Mission Society that she organized in the local Methodist Church when Captain Allmond was in the army. Her trip was not very satisfactory as the incessant rain kept away the ladies. She will return soon.

The W. E. C. T. U. of Gloucester, C. H., was in town Wednesday. While here she purchased of W. R. Broadus, the old Seminary property on Eleventh Street. Mr. Ware will represent and put the property in thorough order at once and bring his family here to live.

Cowles, of Boston, have returned to Paris after a three-month trip to Turkey and Greece.

INTERLAKEN

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
INTERLAKEN, July 15.—The hotels are crowded to their utmost capacity. A brilliant, international throng, assembled every evening in the dining room at the Hotel Victoria, including Mr. and Mrs. William Chapin and Mrs. and Miss May Martin, of Buffalo, and Mrs. Dudley B. Lawrence, Dr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Newton, Dr. and Mrs. M. Arango and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Briddle, of New York.

Among the Hotel Bellevue arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Sillis, whose wedding was one of the greatest recent social events of Buffalo.

LUCERNE

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
LUCERNE, July 15.—Mr. George Gould, who, with his wife and family, are occupying their quarters at the Hotel National, have had a slight annoyance from a country policeman. He was automobiling through the village of Meggin, a few miles from Lucerne, when he was stopped and asked, "Didn't you read the signboard?" Mr. Gould replied no; I read German fairly well, but those idiomatic words on the signboard puzzled me, and as we were running for a cup of tea at Vittana I opened the throttle and let her go.

The policeman said, "You must pay thirty francs."

At the National are also stopping Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gould, with their two sons.

KEEP YOUR

ON TYLER'S GREAT REMODELING SALE FOR BARGAINS.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
CARLSBAD, July 15.—After a period of great heat, the weather is now delightful, with the result that the Kaiserpark and other favorite spots are crowded.

The race meeting this week presented an international gathering such as can only be witnessed here, where the best society of all nations congregates.

Many Americans have arrived, the general opinion being that the land of the Stars and Stripes may be justly proud of its beautiful women.

At the Kurhaus reunion Mrs. J. H. MacPadden, of Philadelphia, was much admired. She was with her husband, and wore a lovely toilet of mauve silk and chiffon.

Other Americans include Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. J. Kings, Mr. Israel Fleher and family, Miss Ella Baird, Mr. Felix McCallan, Mr. Haman Steinberger, Mr. Charles Merz and family, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Freeman and Miss Martha Hobson, all of New York, and Mrs. Joseph Gately, of Philadelphia.

A duel was fought on Monday between Vicomte Armand de Candier de Vouace and Lieutenant von Kiprin. They chose pistols and two shots were exchanged. Neither was wounded, and they shook hands before leaving the ground.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
AIX-LES-BAINS, July 15.—The season at this resort is now in full swing. The Grand Cercle and the Villa des Fleurs are crowded nightly with fashionable throngs. Pigeon shooting is going to be a strong feature of sport here this year.

There are many automobiles at Aix just now, this being an ideal center for tourists extending through France, Switzerland, Germany and Italy.

Among recent American arrivals "on automobile" are Mr. Melville Stern and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hilton, all of New York.

Other visitors from America are Mr. and Mrs. P. Foenik, Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll, Mrs. V. C. Turner, Mrs. Dickinson Tappan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Livingston, Miss May McKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. J. Livingston.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
DIEPPE, July 15.—French seaside resorts are already beginning to have a number of American visitors, who mostly arrive in their automobiles. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh TAKE STEAMER "OLD POINT COMFORT," SATURDAY NIGHT, JULY 22D, 10 O'CLOCK.

750. Round Trip to Norfolk, 750.
750. Round Trip to Newport News, 750.
Children under 12 years, 600.
Tickets good to return next night or following Tuesday.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Beware of Imitations

WILDUNGEN
(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
WILDUNGEN, July 15.—Visitors here include Professor Goethel, of New York; the Misses Horstmann, Captain Spiro, Miss Van Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel, of Philadelphia, and their daughter.

OSTEND
(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
OSTEND, July 15.—The polo season opened on Monday under capital auspices, with ideal weather and a fashionable attendance.

The ground has been much improved since last year, and the going is excellent.

More than two hundred ponies have arrived, the task of stabling being no easy one for the groom. King Leopold has loaned two horses.

In the Prix d'Ouverture Rugby bout the Freebooters by 8 to 6, and Rochemont beat Buenos Ayres by 8 to 3. Budapest scratched, and the final was won by Rochemont by 8 to 2.

THE HAGUE
(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch and New York Herald.)
(Copyright, by the New York Herald Co.)
THE HAGUE, July 15.—Arrivals at The Hague and Seveningen, the pretty North Sea resort, are very numerous, including Mr. W. B. Van Lennep, of Philadelphia; Mr. G. N. Parker, Mr. L. A. Prineas, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stycle, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Deane, Miss M. Sharpe, Miss E. H. Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Tibbitts, Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Chyphers, all of New York; Mrs. S. M. Godbold, Miss C. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mudgett, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Cochrane and Mr. I. R. Stewart, of St. Louis.

At Amsterdam are Mr. and Mrs. G. Pearson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Miss G. Amidon, Mr. Francis P. Pinald, of New York; Mr. Walter P. Cobb, of Chicago, and Miss S. M. Sharpe, of Brooklyn.

PEOPLE IN CAROLINE
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOWLING GREEN, VA., July 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, of West Virginia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Martin. Miss Louise Haines left to-day on a visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.

Miss Susette Beale, of Tappahannock, Va., has returned home after spending some time at Dr. W. L. Broadus'.

Mrs. James T. Lorry left this week for Chicago, where she goes on business.

Miss Maude Scott, of Richmond, and Miss Emma Scott, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests this week of Mrs. B. A. Coghill.

Miss Roma Wright, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Annie Moore, of Gloucester county, are spending some time at Mrs. J. E. W. C. Boyd, will leave next week for Culpeper, where they go to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Jesse, of New York, is here, having been called from her home by the illness of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Collins, who is now much improved.

Mrs. Charles H. Lee and Mr. C. V. Anderson, of Norfolk, will arrive here Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, their aunt.

Mrs. S. S. Coghill has returned to her home here after a visit to her parents in Suffolk county.

Mrs. E. C. Moncure, who has been extremely ill for a number of months, is now much improved, being able to be up and about her room.

Mr. A. B. Chandler, and W. W. Gresham left this week for New York, where they go on business.

visit to friends in Washington and Loudoun county.

Miss Annie Jones left to-day for her home in Cambridge, Maryland.